Exhibit A: SCPL Psychological Safety Algorithm – Students

Student has psychological safety concern and exits the simulation/skills activity

Can the student independently return to the simulation/skills activity?

Yes: Student resumes simulation/skills activity.

No: Student waits in the SCPL lobby for assistance.

Can faculty assess the psychological concern?

No: Faculty will notify Assistant Dean for Simulation/Clinical Nurse Educator.

Assistant Dean for Simulation/Clinical Nurse Educator will assess the student's ability to return to the simulation/skills activity

Follow Chain of Command to report when faculty related

Yes: Faculty will assess the psychological concern and the student's ability to return to the simulation/skills activity.

Is the psychological concern faculty related?

Yes: Faculty will notify Assistant Dean for Simulation/Clinical Nurse Educator.

Assistant Dean for Simulation/Clinical Nurse Educator will assess the student's ability to return to the simulation/skills activity.

Follow Chain of Command to report when faculty related.

No: Can the student return to the simulation/skills activity?

Can the student return to the simulation/skills activity?

Yes: Student resumes simulation/skills activity.

No: Determine the appropriate assistance needed for the student.

Can the student be sent home safely?

Yes: Refer the student to UTHealth Student Health & Counseling Services -713 500 5171.

No: Call the Emergency Crisis Hotline for Students - 713 500 4688 OR Emergency Contact of the Student.

Lead faculty/Assistant Dean for SCPL will follow up with student outcome.