I. POLICY AND GENERAL STATEMENT

This liability insurance coverage is applicable only when the student is functioning in the student role.

II. DEFINITIONS

- A. AANA: American Association of Nurse Anesthesiology

III. PROCEDURE

- A. At the time of registration, each student will be assessed an automatic charge for insurance coverage for the entire academic year. The charge will vary depending on the student's status. Typically, the rates for nurse practitioner and doctoral students will be higher than those for other students.
- B. An exception to this policy includes graduate students who are members of the U.S. Armed Forces on active military duty and have professional liability through their branch of service.
- C. Nurse Anesthesia students receive liability insurance through the American Association of Nurse Anesthesiology (AANA).
- D. Students who enroll midyear will be charged a prorated amount. Liability insurance fees are non-refundable and are subject to change.
